

The British School - Muscat
Founded Under Royal Charter 1973

The British School - Muscat Sultanate of Oman

Established in 1971

Head of Senior School For September 2012

The British School – Muscat is one of the leading schools in the Middle East. It is a not-for-profit, non-selective, co-educational, British international day school that provides a comprehensive and balanced education to a mix of approximately 900 English speaking expatriate pupils aged 3 – 18 (57 nationalities, 51% British). The school follows an enhanced National Curriculum for England and produces excellent SAT, GCSE and A Level results. The school provides a British education for an international future.

The Primary School and Senior School are led and managed by their own head teachers under the overall leadership of the recently appointed Principal, Mr Kai Vacher. Together with the Bursar, they form the school's leadership team. The school is seeking to appoint an inspirational leader and role model to successfully lead the Senior School's 400 students and 60 staff. Applicants should have a thorough understanding of the National Curriculum for England, GCSEs and A Levels.

This is an exciting time to join the British School – Muscat. Applicants will need show a genuine and passionate commitment to the Vision for the school which is to become world class. During the application process candidates will need to demonstrate that they have the leadership capability to:

- maintain BSM's Outstanding inspection judgement (2009) and place the school in the very highest tier of schools inspected under the OFSTED inspection framework.
- drive up student achievement to levels comparable with the most successful state and independent schools in the UK.
- establish BSM as a world leader in personalising learning.
- engage students and parents in the learning process to the highest possible levels.
- provide students with a compelling programme of opportunities to develop their skills and competencies as global entrepreneurs fitting for a world class school.
